A REACTION IN NEW YORK .- If WO are to credit the Democratic papers and letter-writers of the North, a reaction has recently taken place in New York which makes the State certain for Hoffman. Scores of men of property who have been contributing to the radical electioneering fund are going for Hoffman. Finding the radicals on the road to ruin they are rapidly halting. This is the Democratic version and there is no doubt some truth in it; but the friends of Hoffman should not in consequence lessen their efforts. The canvass will be warm and the Republican vote heavy. Political boasting is all very fine, but it does not carry many votes to the

PURSUING SOUTHERN ALLIES UNDER DIFFICULTIES.-The New York Post has been looking over the Southern States for journals that favor the amendment. Here is the list it has made out: New Orleans Tribune and the Homer Iliad, in Louisiana; in Georgia, structure and texture of our governthe Savannah Republican and the Loyalist: in South Carolina, the Charleston News and the Journal; in Tennessee, the Memphis Post, the Nashville Press and Times; in North Carolina, the Newbern Times, the Raleigh Standard and the Charlotte Democrat: in Texas, Flake's Galves ton Bulletin, the Austin Southern Intelligencer, and the San Autonio Express; in Virginia, the New Nation.

None of the papers in the above list can be called influential or representative journals.
